MÃ¡scara

Francis Hime

Stumbling along looking at nothing
Because your eyes are always on your feet
If you ever looked up you'd see the sun
And the morning - you wonder why things are so bleak?ChorusBoring and old
Are the things you're told
About the outside world
An' just wearing black
Won't take care of that
Don't be stupid girlWalking and always talking
But never listening, you just kick back
So how do you handle all the bullshit
That gets thrown in your way?!You're down on your knees
Trying to appease
Somebody's mixed up statement
'Cause in not much time
Your beliefs are that liesWill be left by the pavementChorusThey'll be left by the way ...I've been doing some thinking
'Bout all your preaching, an' I don't want to know!
'Cause that's just conforming
And that is not what you want to be.ChorusThey'll be left by the wayOh left by the pavementOh don't be so stupid girl - you're in your world
All dressed in black
Won't take care of that
Don't be, be so stupid girl
