Let the Light In

MisterWives

If I, could take you to a place
Where all worries would erase
Oh we'd leave this world behindUndo, all the knots that have been tied
Free our bodies and our minds
Oh we'd leave this world behindRelease, all the weight on burdened chests
A foreign state to feel weightless
Oh we'd leave this world behindLet's dive, into waters open wide
That will wash away our cries
Oh we'd leave this world behind
The things, worthwhile, you can't see them with your eyes
The thing you need isn't something you can buyLet's sing, until our lungs give out and bring a new hope that's screaming
This world needs to be revived
Take aim, and ignite a burning flame
Let it run till none remains
This world needs to be revivedThe things, worthwhile, you can't see them with your eyes
The thing you need isn't something you can buy
The things, worthwhile, you can't see them with your eyes
The thing you need isn't something you can buyLet the light in, let the light in, let the light in
Let the light in, let the light in, let the light in
Let the light in, let the light in, let the light in
Let the light in, let the light in, let the light in
The things, worthwhile, you can't see them with your eyes
The thing you need isn't something you can buy
The things, worthwhile, you can't see them with your eyes
The thing you need isn't something you can buyLet the light in, let the light in, let the light in
Let the light in, let the light in, let the light in
