[Everlast]

Back in black, who's the mack?
Sittin' on the back of the Cadillac [Danny Boy]
It's the D motherfucker better pass me the mic
So I can rock on and drop the styles I write
Like hip hop ya don't stop and all that
I rock the freestyles and neat styles that are crazy phat
Like aces I've been so many places it's making me sick
Punk get off my dick 'Cause I'm the same motherfucker
That I ever was, same motherfucker
But I can't pay attention 'cause I'm on that dust [Everlast]
My head's not swell, kid I'm not gel
Don't feed me soup just give me the funky loop
I'll rock it to the best of my ability
Runnin' mad styles and showin' flexibility
'Cause I'm the man that's on point when I jam a funky joint
I want some other over there yo, I just don't care shit
Pass the mic then I'm gonna' tear shit up
Like a piece of paper
Your girl caught the vapor
When I ran the caper, I ain't rearranged
So don't look strange, I'm the same motherfucker
Ain't a damn thing changed 'Cause I'm the same motherfucker
That I ever was, same motherfucker
But I can't pay attention 'Cause I'm on that dust [Danny Boy]
'Cause I'm hard like stone don't play me soft
And I rock rhymes frequently I drop it off and
I'm off in space, I remember your face
But don't remember your name
'Cause it's all the same as it ever was
That's what it is money grip, don't trip
Or I'm gonna' bust that lip 'Cause I'm the same motherfucker

That I ever was, same motherfucker
But I can't pay attention
'Cause I'm on that dust[Everlast]
Bustin', flippin', skippin', just like a stone on a river
Ya know I'm gonna' give her whole lotta' flavor
Criminal behavior used to be how I made it
But that shits over rated
Now I rock rhymes over funky beats
I fuck fine hookers between satin sheets
They say money changes people but I won't
'Cause I'm the same motherfucker that I ever was 'Cause I'm the same motherfucker
That I ever was, same motherfucker
But I can't pay attention
'Cause I'm on that dust And ya don't quit 'cause I'm on that dust
Soul Assassins are on that dust
(Ha, ha)
My man J. Disco is on that dust
Cypress Hill is on that dust
Funkdoobiest is on that dust
