Arab Strap

It takes much more than names
I'm crying to convince me, we've been trying
And I don't want it when you need it
I'd write it down if you'd read itI'm saying too much, it loses power
But sometimes I need it on the hour, every hour
What do I have to do to get the message through?
There's no discussion, it's easy to end it
No effort's made to try to defend itI make my point if you shut up and let me
You know, I'm only leaving
So you can come and get me
I've heard everything you've said
I'm tired and I just need my bed
