

Dry Land

Marillion

In all the time that I've known you
You've been so edgy and nervous
I never wanted to own you I was aware of the danger
Of making a bid for your favors
You're such a natural stranger
I made excuses and ran You're an island
But I can't leave you all out at sea
You're so violent with your silence You're an island
I can't sleep, won't you speak to me?
I'm on dry land
Won't you help me, please? In all the time that I've known you
There has been something between us
I don't think it's my imagination I felt like I couldn't touch you
But I had the feeling you'd love to Tell me the truth if you could do
I made excuses and ran You're an island
But I can't leave you all out at sea
You're so violent with your silence You're an island
I can't sleep, won't you speak to me?
I'm on dry land
Won't you help me, please?
