Master Exploder

Dead To Fall

Cursed by everyone I have known
Lost control, now I'm alone
Cursed by everyone I have known
Lost control, now I'm aloneCursed by everyone I have known
Lost control, now I'm alone
Cursed by everyone I have known
Lost control, now I'm aloneI hate this about myself
That you asked forgiveness
And I watched you burn
Yeah, yeah, yeah, burnWhen every one of your promises
Falters and fails as I know they would
I will turn my back and go it alone, alone
I will turn my back and go it alone, aloneWhen it seems it can't get worse
Burn it down, build it back
When it seems it can't get worse
Burn it down, build it backI will never see things the way you do
And I cannot entertain the possibility of forgiveness
There is no way I can just forgive and forget
And for that I will be condemned andCursed by everyone I have known
Lost control, now I'm alone
Cursed by everyone I have known
Lost control, now I'm aloneCursed by everyone I have known
Lost control, now I'm alone
Cursed everyone I have known
Lost control, now I'm alone
