CHAMPS - My Spirit is broken (Lyrics by Matteo&Agnes)

My Spirit is broken
my hands are on fire
my heart is choking
in a twisting desire

But I keep on running
I keep on running
To you
To you
To you

My Spirit is broken
I'm down on my luck
but my love is allergic too much to give up I will keep on running keep on running
to you
to You
to you

Don't be the reason
Don't be the reason
Don't be the reason
Why it's cold in my heart

When the cold of the night only tears you apart and the light of the stars only tell you its dark I will always be calling,
always be calling your name
your name
your name
your name

The loneliest hour that I'd ever known and you were out of control

I was sleeping alone and dreamt I was falling dreamt I was falling with you
with you
with you

Don't be the reason
Don't be the reason
Don't be the reason
Why it's cold in my heart

I'm not the reason
I'm not the reason
I'm not the reason
why it's cold in your heart

secretly you're not mine

Don't be the reason
Don't be the reason
Why it's cold in my heart

I'm not the reason
I'm not the reason
I'm not the reason
why it's cold in your heart
