Breathe Deep

Raw Produce

Drop in here at the edge of the ocean
My ship is breaking up, now its already broken
I hear your voice and I dont understand that
You see me now, but my minds in transit
Off a running to oblivionIm holding on
It wont be longTill we all breathe deep
Falling through the darkness that we keep
Where shadows lie and we dont fall asleep
We all breathe deepYou can break my fall or you can sit back watching
You can watch me sink, as your holding a life ring
You made a choice but you dont understand it
I see you blink while your minds in transit
All the way into oblivionIm holding on
It wont be longTill we all breathe deep
Falling through the darkness that we keep
Where shadows lie and we dont fall asleep
We all breathe deepIf time were water
Today would be a slow slow drip
Times been passing by right through me
Sip by sip'Cause we all breathe deep
Falling through the darkness that we keep
Where shadows lie and we dont fall asleep
We all breathe deep
All breathe deep
