

Steal Your Heart

Ross Lynch

You're a good girl,
a perfect picture of an angel smile,
from a magazine,
but it's a new world,
and I know so well, the side of you no one's ever seen. Hey, now, baby, no doubt about it, girl
you drive me crazy, I'm feeling guilty to the way you make me, wanna steal your heart (steal your heart) Call me criminal,
I won't deny it you make me want it all everything you are
so lock it up,
go on and try it,
no matter what you do I'm gonna steal your heart I confess, I kinda like it that you're innocent, keepin' up your guard, I'll break it down
so you can't hide it, no matter what you do I'm gonna do gonna steal your heart! So no matter what you do I'm going to steal your heart.
