

Be Fair With Me Baby

Billie Holiday

I'm helpless without you, baby
I've almost lost my man
Yes, helpless without you, baby
I've almost lost my man I'm blue and confused
Since you left me behind My friends all know it, baby
The tears, I cannot hide
My friends all know it, baby
The tears, I cannot hide You've changed, you're dispositioned
And throw my love aside Be fair with me, baby
Our love can start anew
Please be fair with me, baby
Our love can start anew I'm blue and helpless, baby
And I'm worried over you
Yes, I'm worried
I've got the helpless blue
