Let It Rain

Johnny Mathis

Let it rain, let it pour
I just don't care anymore
Skies are gray from day to day
Since you've gone away
Hours come, hours go
Time seems to move so slow
All I do is dream of you
All the long night through
"Pitter patter" go the raindrops on my window pane
They fall with ev'ry tear
Through the trees I hear the breeze still echoing your name
For, in my imagination, you're still here
See the clouds high above
Dark is my world without love
Till you're mine the sun won't shine
So, let it rain, let it rain, let it rain
