

Fine Looking Woman

B.B. King

Got a fine lookin' woman, lives way across the town

Yes, she's a fine lookin' woman, lives way across the town

Whenever I see that woman, my love comes tumbling down She's a fine lookin' woman and she soothes my worried soul

She's a fine lookin' woman and she soothes my worried soul

Well, she put the lights out on me then I gave up all my gold She's a fine lookin' woman and she shakes all the men

Yeah, fine lookin' woman and the meat shakes on the bone

Well, every time she shakes mine then all my body's gone
