

In A Body Like A Grave

Japandroids

Christ will call you out
School will deepen debt
Work will sap the soul
Love will scar the heart
Sun will burn the skin
Just the way it is
And way it's always been And it's all in a lifetime
And all in a body like a grave
All in a lifetime
And all in a body like a grave
All in a lifetime
And all in a body like a grave
All in a lifetime
And all in a body like a grave Christ will call you out
School will deepen debt
Work will sap the soul
Love will scar the heart
Sun will burn the skin
Just the way it is
And way it's always been And it's all in a lifetime
And all in a body like a grave
All in a lifetime
And all in a body like a grave
All in a lifetime
And all in a body like a grave
All in a lifetime
And all in a body like a grave And age is a traitor and, bit by bit
Less lust for life, more talking shit
But remember there's heaven in the hellest of holes
And a drink for the body is a dream for the soul
Well, tell will time, but best be awares
That time is money and money swears
So break the bank like you're breaking a building
Love so hard that time stands still
If your name is shame, though your love is loss
Swap the city's lights for the southern cross
Gather the gang and make that night

An ultimatum to the universe, fuck or fight
From the rush to the moment of
Your comes but your love will be lumps
It's all in a lifetime, but here and now
Only god knows where and devil knows howAnd it's all in a lifetime
And all in a body like a grave
All in a lifetime
And all in a body like a grave
All in a lifetime
And all in a body like a grave
All in a lifetime
And all in a body like a graveAnd it's all in a lifetime
And all in a body like a grave
All in a lifetime
And all in a body like a grave
And it's all in a lifetime (all in a lifetime)
And all in a body like a grave (in a body like a grave)
All in a lifetime (all in a lifetime)
And all in a body like a grave (in a body like a grave)
