

Missing You

Montell Jordan

Huh, yeah, I wanna tell you about this lady
She's so special to me, I want you all to know about her
Know what I'm saying? Yo, check this out I got a new lady in my life and it hurts so much to say goodbye
Every time I'm on the road, in my hotel room alone
I stare at your picture, I miss you, I wanna come home I miss you so, counting the tears on my pillow
Nobody knows quite like I know how I'm missing you
And when those teardrops fall like rain, I don't wanna feel like this again
You hear what I'm saying? Sydney, I'm missing you Da-da's home, I'm gonna sweep you off your feet
Hold you in my arms and sing you to sleep
When you're crying I am going to dry your weeping eyes
Rock you in the midnight hour, tonight I realize I miss you so, counting the tears on my pillow
Nobody knows quite like I know how I'm missing you
And when those teardrops fall like rain, I don't wanna feel like this again
You hear what I'm saying? Sydney, I'm missing you I miss you so, counting the tears on my pillow
Nobody knows quite like I know how I'm missing you
And when those teardrops fall like rain, I don't wanna feel like this again
You hear what I'm saying? Sydney, I'm missing you Let me hear you say da-da, da-da, the first words
You said are ringing in my head again
Da-da, da-da, oh da-da, every time I go away
I'm missing you everyday I miss you so, counting the tears on my pillow
Nobody knows quite like I know how I'm missing you
And when those teardrops fall like rain, I don't wanna feel like this again
You hear what I'm saying? Sydney, I'm missing you I miss you so, counting the tears on my pillow
Nobody knows quite like I know how I'm missing you
And when those teardrops fall like rain, I don't wanna feel like this again
You hear what I'm saying? Sydney, I'm missing you [Unverified]
