The Day's Refrain

Texas Is the Reason

He said that it felt good to be alive.
He never did amount too much.
He never did try hard enough.
This time I won't be caught off guard,
just like all other times before.
It doesn't mean that much to me.
Loving never meant that much to me.
I never said that it felt good to know everything that you needed to know.
I guess you never really tried.
