

Villainy Thrives

Trivium

I can feel it aching within every bone inside of me
I can feel it breaking a retaliation release
I need to cause the evil doer suffering
Cant wait to choke the life out from your ?? BodiesIf only I could afflict you
Hurt you in the same way that you hurt
I just want to exact reprisal
Retribution callsThe only way I depict you
Is that your attentions undeserved
Meet the vessel of your reprisal
Retribution callsIts not that I take life for granted
Its only that the good wont make it
Innocence dies while Villainy ThrivesHow can you harm a living thing thinking that its your right
Having you devitalized to prior of innocence
For too long you've gotten away with murder
A fitting justice would be your painful executionIf only I could afflict you
Hurt you in the same way that you hurt
I just want to exact reprisal
Retribution callsThe only way I depict you
Is that your attentions undeserved
Meet the vessel of your reprisal
Retribution callsIts not that I take life for granted
Its only that the good wont make it
Innocence dies while Villainy ThrivesIts not that I take life for granted
Its only that the good wont make it
Innocence dies while Villainy ThrivesI want to ruin the rapist
Punish the criminal
Violate the abuser
End the murdererI want to ruin the rapist
Punish the criminal
Violate the abuser
End the murdererIts not that I take life for granted
Its only that the good wont make it
Innocence dies while Villainy ThrivesIts not that I take life for granted
Its only that the good wont make it
Innocence dies while Villainy Thrives
