Stand In Front Of Me

Kelly Rowland

He

(Said) He said stand in front of me
Let me pone that ass
Show em your're my girl
And let me stay

I'll be the king (the king)
As long as, you stand in front of me
In front of me, stand in front of me
In front of me

My life's become a fantasy
I wake up your my man
Give me the world and here you go
Just by grabbing my hand (hand)
Watch you worry puzzles me and I love when you say
Stand in front of me (in front of me)
In front of me (in front of me) stand in front of me

I was asked something long ago
And couldn't answer and it bothered me a little
How do you keep your man
And I found the best answer, it's simple
You just do it, do it, mean it, prove it
That's how you keep your man, how you keep your man,
How you keep your man, how you keep your man
Ladies do it, do it, mean it, prove it
Oh you gotta have a plan, gotta take a chance
That'll keep your man, that'll keep him saying

Stand in front of me
Let me pone that ass
Show em your're my girl
And let me stay

I'll be the king (the king)
As long as, you stand in front of me
In front of me, stand in front of me

In front of me

So I get down on bended knee
And grab you by your (hand)
Your like oh no babe you can't do that I'm like oh oh yes I can
Or we could just go back to cuddling
Or you could just say stand in front of me (stand in front of me)
Stand in front of me (stand in front of me)
Front of me (stand in front of me)

I was asked something long ago
And couldn't answer and it bothered me a little
How do you keep your man
And I found the best answer, it's simple
Do it, do it, mean it, prove it
That's how you keep your man, how you keep your man,
How you keep your man, how you keep your man
Ladies do it, do it, mean it, prove it
Oh you gotta have a plan, gotta take a chance
That'll keep your man, that'll keep him saying

Stand in front of me
Let me pone that ass
Show 'em your're my girl
And let me stay

I'll be the king (the king)
As long as, you stand in front of me
In front of me, stand in front of me
In front of me

Mm
Now I love, when my man talk to me like that
