

Jah Is My Friend (feat. Christos DC)

Kenyatta Hill

Tell me what is wrong, when you no its not right.
Tell me to get up again, when iâ€™ve lost my sight.
Tell me what youre mother might say, if she saw you leaving this way.
Tell me can you go another day, tried to find yourâ€™e life to the maze.

You never know his love was real, it puts you closer to magnet steel.
Thats how i know my Jah is real. HÃ© never slumber no sleeze.

Jah Jah is the only friend i know, because my forfathers told i so.
Because i everywhere i go, thank you for the blessings he be told.

Its what they told me, when i was younger, that we should always, have for eachother.
When it seems to be, so hard to find. Show some crisem you will shine.

Tell me what is wrong, when you no its not right.
Tell me to get up again, when iâ€™ve lost my sight.
You never know his love was real, it puts me closer than magnet steel.
And i know my Jah is real, hurt it to loose the Seven seals.

Jah Jah is the only friend i know, because my forfathers told i so.
HÃ© guides me everywhere i go,
Thank you for the blessings he be told.

HÃ© will never slumber nor sleet.
My saver my redeemer, lord of lords, kink of kings.
