Julius Dobos

Somewhere, sometime, all things will be fine
And it never seems to stop
Wonder if I've met my wife?
Somewhere, sometime, all things will be fine
And it never seems enough
Wonder if I've met my wife?

Splinter left, focus right, focus right
This mortal soil around me, mortal feeling I have found
Surrounded by your glory, hold me now so that I never drown
And it never seems to stop
Somewhere, sometime
Wonder if I've met my wife?
Splinter left, focus right, focus right, focus right
