

Caesar's Palace Blues

UK

Creamed-up kitten screaming for her next injection
Dead dog in the driveway, protein intection
The most exclusive restaurants have a few uninvited divers
Don't worry if you're under age, they've special schemes for minors
Caesar's Palace blues
You lost your shirt on your last hand, you nearly sold your shoes
You came up tumps last weekend so you've got to pay your dues
Cards fall, faces change, cat's cunning shows
Same rules still apply, either way you lose
Caesar's Palace blues
Lovers on the carpet, Cupid's dream for certain
But there's always someone hiding right behind the hotel curtain
They've cameras in the casino and bugs under your bed
But all the gold in Reno couldn't bring old Caesar back from dead.
Caesar's Palace blues
Caesar's Palace blues

Songwriters

JOBSON, EDWIN / WETTON, JOHN KENNETH

Published by

Lyrics Â© Universal Music Publishing Group

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>