

Maker Of The Wind

Big Daddy Weave

Dark skies overhead and I remember what You said,
That You would never leave
Rough waters all around but here I am on solid ground
As You reach down to me
And if You are on my side, whom shall I fear And I know the Maker of the wind
The Master of the waves
Forgiver of my sin And I know the One who holds my hope
So I won't be afraid when storms come blowing in
I know the Maker of the wind When trouble finds me, sneaks up behind me
It trips me up and it makes me fall
But when I'm broken then You remind me
That You have overcome it all And I know the Maker of the wind
The Master of the waves
Forgiver of my sin And I know the One who holds my hope
So I won't be afraid when storms come blowing in
I know the Maker of the wind You know the number of my days
And what I need to understand
God I can trust in You as long as I can say That I know the Maker of the wind
The Master of the waves
Forgiver of my sin That I know the Maker of the wind
The Master of the waves
Forgiver of my sin And I know the One who holds my hope
So I won't be afraid when storms come blowing in
I know the Maker of the wind
The make of the wind yeah
So let the wind blow

Songwriters

ALAN, PAUL/WEAVER, MICHAEL DAVID Published by

Lyrics © Warner/Chappell Music, Inc. Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>