

Can't Believe

Deepest Blue

If loneliness is stealing
Then my heart goes out to you
I got nothing left to lose What's the point of trying?
I gave my word but you weren't moved
I can't believe you took it all I'm giving it up on you
For all those things you put me through
Like petals on the floor
Crashed my world and faked it away And you should know just what to do
I hope that time heals those that fall I can't believe, this can't be true
Why can't you see we've got too much to lose?
A broken dream, a broken you
'Cause nothing else will mean the same for you You say I must be dreaming
I won't be taken like a fool
You just can't rearrange the rules I say that hadn't been there
And all the lies you told before
See the cracks upon the wall I'm giving it up on you
For all those things you put me through
Like petals on the floor
Crashed my world and faked it all And you should know just what to do
I hope that time heals those that fall I can't believe, this can't be true
Why can't you see we've got too much to lose?
A broken dream, a broken you
'Cause nothing else will mean the same for you I used to think my world is home
And now my world is going on
I'm all alone, I'm so alone
The pain will last forever I used to think my world is home
And now my world is going on
I'm all alone, I'm so alone
The pain will last forever Can't believe, this can't be true
Why can't you see we've got too much to lose?
A broken dream, a broken you
'Cause nothing else will be the same for you
