

Lowdown

Blues 'N' Trouble

It's the twists and turns
Of the cigarette burns
The holes in the mind
Of the nebulous mass
Forget no returns
And you don't learn
The debt between mine
And the hole in your past
I'm the dust
Of someone's ash
See you in Hell
With the rest of the trash
I need love
A love with question
A clean mind
And a pocket of space
I want a map
And a sense of direction
Looking for love
And the thrill of the world
Just spinning round
Trying to find [unverified]
You wanna be out there
When you're underground
Now, now, now
Now, now, now
Do you feel it lowdown
Too many thoughts
Might have twisted my thinking
I just can't think straight anymore
I've got the bends
I can feel myself sinking
Just can't keep on
Keep on coming back for more
In love
There's no need to worry
I've got nails
So hold on, hold on
Think back before you started thinking

About the things you were Sold on, sold on
    Keep spinning round
        Trying to hold on
    But you're failing now
    You wanna be up there
    But you're underground
        Now, now, now
        Now, now, now
    Do you feel it lowdown
    Lowdown, lowdown, lowdown
        And the world
        Keeps spinning around
        Trying to burn
    But you're melting down
    You wanna be out there
    But you're underground
        Now, now, now
        Now, now, now
    Do you feel it lowdown
        Spinning round
        Spinning round
        Spinning round
    Now, now, now
    Now, now, now
    Do you feel it lowdown
