

Time Bomb

Delta Spirit

Tickin' of a time bomb
I just wanna stop the sound
Faded like a lonesome
It's true Remind you of a memory
Bleed it till it runs dry
But if it feels like this then its probably wrong
It's true I don't know what comes now
I can't hear it but I know the sound
Everyone is blind just the same as you
Well, you'll see it when it comes around Frightened like an orphan
Bitter like an old man
Taken from your family
It's true But know I don't deserve this
But who am I to judge
Happiness it comes at the strangest time
It's true I don't know what comes now
I can't hear it but I know the sound
Everyone is blind just the same as you
But you see it when it comes around Tickin' of a time bomb
I just wanna stop the sound
Happiness, it comes at the strangest time
It's true I don't know what comes now
I can't hear it but I know the sound
Everyone is blind just the same as you
But you see it when it comes around
You see it when it comes around
Woah, you see it when it comes around
You see it when it comes around
