

Six Bar Phrase Hey Hey

Bear vs. Shark

I would be a liar, I would be the poorest saint.

Clipped like the angels in the altar of a gentleman,

Clipped like the angels in the altar of a gentleman. Crowd on this spot like he was an angel,

Crowd on this spot like he was an angel.

You know what you must say, you know what you must say. Crowd on this spot like he was an angel,

Crowd on this spot like he was an angel.

You know what you must say, you know what you must say.
