

Ha'penny Bridge

The Makem & Spain Brothers

Come walk with me on the Ha'Penny Bridge and sit upon the stair if old Ma Dublin has a heart I know she keeps it there The feeling there can't be explained tho I tried many times Through smut and smoke and city noise
The warm sun always shines

CHORUS

on the Ha'Penny Bridge you can stand in the sun watching lovers go by hand in hand buy a flow'r for your love from that old woman's store with a smile for free only you and your love understand an old man sits on the Ha'Penny Bridge his music box he plays the people passing stop a while they listen but don't pay But he'll stay there on the Ha'Penny Bridge with soft smile on his face and watch the notes rip on the water to some distant place

CHORUS

watching lovers go by hand in hand

each sunday morning on the bridge the children gather there the rich, the poor stand side by side but no one really cares there's toy balloons and rubber dolls the stalls stand in a row There's fruit and flowers and singing birds

Buy now before I go!

watching lovers go by hand in hand
