Velocity Girl

Primal Scream

Here she comes again
With vodka in her veins
Been playing with a spike
She couldn't get it rightSplendour in silver dress
Velocity possessed
The world was hers again
It fell apart againI don't need anyone to hurt me
No, not anyone at all
`cause my so-called friends have left me
And I don't care at allLeave me alone
Leave me alone
Leave me aloneTranscribed by alison cummings
