Destroyed By Society

Brutality

[music by Walsh/Acres, lyrics by Coker/Reigel]dreams of days gone by life which path to take flash backs hallucinations world has changed
back into society
see the light of day
tolerance
perceived as challenge
hostile environment
no excuse for failure
you're victimized
punishment for guilt
blandly accepting fate
humilation
threshold of mixed emotions deliberately supressed
released from isolation uncertainty arises
adapt to my surroundings horrified of what I see population dominated aversive stimulation
inability to control
disrupting effect
reopening the wounds
abandoned and deprived
disease potential
[solo: Walsh]
