

Roll Out the Red Carpet

Jimmy Buckley

I'm gonna, roll out the red carpet, when you come home

I'm gonna treat you like a VIP like you ain't never known

I'm gonna have a brass band at the station,

I'm gonna let 'em know at the united nations

I'm a gonna, roll out the red carpet, when you come home Well I think I hear old 99 rounding the bend

I know it won't be long until you're in my arms again

I'm a gonna love you hug and kiss you

I'm gonna let you know how much I miss you

I'm a gonna roll out the red carpet when you come home

Chorus

Solo Well I, worn out my best shoes, walking the floor

And I won't sleep a wink till you, knock on my door

Well with the word that you was a comin'

The clock on the wall just about stop runnin'

I'm a gonna roll out the red carpet when you come home Chorus x 2
