One step, one step
As I witness the death of innocence
A predator feeding on its creation
Through the fallout of this hallucination
I walked into darkness
Must not surrender my god to anyone
Or this body will become carrion
One step closer
One step closer to my fate
One step closer
One step closer to my grave
As I witness my own degeneration
The future condemns me
Must not surrender my god to anyone
Or this body will become carrion
One step closer
One step closer to my fate
One step closer
One step closer to my grave
One, one
One step closer
One step closer
One step closer to my fate
One step closer
One step closer to my fate
One step closer
One step closer to my grave
One step closer to my grave
One step closer to my grave
One step closer to my grave
One step to my grave
