Warpath

Bombshell Rocks

If I give it all, things will remain
Well, hard work is my middle name
It's all I ever wanted
Now give it to me againIf I give it all, things will remain
Well, hard work is my middle name
It's all I ever wanted
I melt now, give it to me againI'm on the warpath
For me there's no turning back
Well, I've been away to long
Well, I still feel so strongSome are scared of being misfits
I'm scared of fitting in
Well, I try to take control
I wanna be on top of thingsIf I give it all, things will remain
Well, hard work is my middle name
It's all I ever wanted
Now give it to me againIf I give it all, things will remain
Well, hard work is my middle name
It's all I ever wanted
I melt now, give it to me againSometimes it's tempting
To do things the easy way
But I never liked compromising
I never looked for a cheap escapeIt's always been a hundred
Hundred percent or nothing
So this is where you'll find me
I'll never run awayIf I give it all, things will remain
Well, hard work is my middle name
It's all I ever wanted
Now give it to me againIf I give it all, things will remain
Well, hard work is my middle name
It's all I ever wanted
I melt now, give it to me again
