

Box Office

Pedro Gabriel Amaral

Praying about everything
And anything that brings ourselves to scream
While in an island far from here
Everyone is living inside my dream
Gangster film with no criminals
But the script is brilliant for me
Low budget and animals
While my film is ending without a scene
My never ending fear
Will die in about an year
Screams all over the place
Intertwined tales
In an apocalyptic rest
Where everyone wear the 40s dress
Movies and haircuts are the best
Our Brad Pitt now is Orson Welles
My darling full of shit
Everyday is a big hit
Same plot twist again
Film noir in Spain
You ask me how do I know
It's gonna be a blockbuster
I say I know, I know
Because I know, I know
Screams all over the place
Intertwined tales
You ask me how do I know
It's gonna be a blockbuster
I say I know, I know
Because I know, I know
