I Cry (Rework)

Rotersand

me and you standing eye to eye i read your face, i've known you for so long torn in two and i don't know why what was right somehow now is wrongi say hey my friend don't let it end we've got to try, try while we still cani say hey my friend i don't know when but there's a time our sun will rise againwhat we did, what we said what we missd and what we had i cry icry over you
