

Climb On (A Back That's Strong)

Caedmon's Call

Oh, my soul, sometimes
We don't know what to do
We work so hard being tough on our own
But now it's me and youLet's give it up, sad bones
'Cause we are following hard times
But you don't have to stand up all alone
Just put your hand in mineClimb on a back that's strong
Yeah, you can get what you want
Climb on a back that's strongIf you could save me a place in heaven
With a clean well-lighted room
I'd muscle up to Armageddon
And wave to you, darling, be home soonIf you could show me the story of love
I would write it again and again
And then you could be the woman you need
If you would just let me be the man that I amOh, I don't know
Sometimes we try too hard to see
But we've got one down and one more to go
That's when you say to meClimb on a back that's strong
Yeah, you can get what you want
Climb on a back that's strong
