

That's How It Is

Paul Freeman

I can't help if you don't understand
The beginning is always further away than the end
You can hide behind all that's breaking lead
But love reveals everything you'll ever have
Time will always come for you
That's how it is, how it is, that's just how it is
And I will try to comfort you
That's how it is, how it is, that's just how it is
So you can take these hands and take this face
But you'll be wrong if you think that everyone will be replaced
We all break plans and make mistakes
But they never seem to matter much at the end of the day
Time will always come for you
That's how it is, how it is, that's just how it is
And I will try to comfort you
That's how it is, how it is, that's just how it is
It's easier to compromise when everything has gone
And it's hard to make amends when all the damages are done
And to everyone I've ever hurt, I'm sorry
But I was wrong
A farewell kiss will never mean goodbye
'Cause it holds on to the promises I made with these eyes
I'll leave you everything that's mine
If you say that you need me in the next life (in the next life, in the next life)
Time will always come for you
That's how it is, how it is, that's just how it is
And I will try to comfort you
That's how it is, how it is, that's how it is, that's just how it is
Time will always come for you
That's how it is, how it is
Time will always come for you
That's how it is
