

Alright

Keaton Henson

I know the west was won this way but god forgive the heartless way we let it all burn down i know i know you're off on tour godspeed my love i'll not be bored at all A mess here now I'll allow my heart to get over you now let yours take a generous bow. i'll be fine.
you'll be alright come see me in the morning i'll be in the sunrise hoping that its rays don't burn a hole in my eyes you know me, i worry could always use some pity scared you'll do a session if it's in the city
you and i are monsters we'll not find another cannot be together lest we eat each other don't make me leave it's been about a month and i am eating badly still don't cry but i keep meaning to i hear the crowds adore you so but i'm still here i hope you know don't talk to them about me obviously my wounds are open to see but don't take them seriously i'll be fine and you're more than alright come meet me in the trenches i'll be taking cover you can load the guns and i'll hide behind the others always been a coward you can ask my friends I hide inside for hours always had intense eyes i think i am sick but never can be certain still call up my mother hiding behind curtainsdon't wake me, no don't make me go outsidegod knows what out there lies come home and i don't die after you

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <https://damnllyrics.com/>