For Such a Long Time

Elis

My heart's filled with loneliness and pain
Lying in my lover's arms,
I hear him breathe and I can feel
The beating of his heartHis hand caresses my skin
And he whispers words of love
He's sleeping in my arms and I can feel
Loneliness in my heartHe only reminds me of you
So I do all the things with him
For such a long timeFor such a long timeHe tells me it's a dream coming true
And I wish it would be your voice
For such a long timeI take what I can get, can't be alone
I need someone beside me now
His strong arms hold me close and I can feel
His love from deep insideI'm looking in his eyes deep as the sea
I know I'll hurt him bad
He's giving all he has and I can feel
No love for him right nowHe only reminds me of you
So I do all the things with him
For such a long timeFor such a long timeHe tells me it's a dream coming true
And I wish it would be your voice
For such a long time
