

Silence Is Golden

Boyd Rice and Friends

If I am silent then I am not real
If I speak up then no one will hear
If I wear a mask there's somewhere to hide
Silence is golden, I have been broken
Safe in my own skin so nobody wins
If I raise my voice will someone get hurt
And if I can't feel then I won't get touched
If no truth is spoken then no lies can hide
Silence is golden, I have been broken
Safe in my own skin so nobody wins
Silence is golden, nobody gets in
Safe in my own skin so nobody wins
Did you hear me speak
Do you understand?
Did you hear my voice
Will you hold my hand?
Do you understand me?
Won't someone listen, nobody gets in
My body's a temple but nothing is simple
Silence is golden, I have been broken
Something was stolen, safe in my own skin
Safe in my own skin, won't someone listen
My body's a temple but nothing is simple
My body's a temple but nothing is simple
Something was stolen, I have been broken
I have been broken, silence is golden
I have been broken, safe in my own skin
