

The Miracle In July

Saybia

She's so fine
She grows in their mindsShe's so fine
She grows in their minds
Into the light she conquers the world
A moment so wonderful
A diamond so precious
A beauty beyond compareShe's so fine
She grows in their minds
They look into her eyes
And feel so surprised
As she crawls under their skin
They're ready to die for
The miracle in JulyShe's so fine
She grows in their minds
In their mindsShe speaks no words
But they know what she says
Just by looking into her eyes
It's just a God given gift
That they instantly get
Just by looking into her eyes
They don't have to wait for her no longer
They don't have to wait for her no moreThey don't have to wait for her no longer
They don't have to wait for her no moreThey don't have to wait
They don't have to wait
