

Dig a Little Deeper

Peter Bjorn and John

You think you've got it made
I'm trying to have some fun
You think you know it all
I've only just begun You're sliding on the surface
I'm reaching for the bottom
The past is so suppressing
The future fades away And if you think your brain is hollow
You just have to scream
And dig a little deeper All art has been contemporary
Dig a little deeper, dig a little deeper
All art has been contemporary
Dig a little deeper, dig a little deeper
Dig a little deeper, dig a little deeper
Dig a little deeper You enjoy the silence
When I want to discuss
You like to keep it tidy
I wanna mess it up I defy definition
Of what's supposed to be
I don't want recognition
If you don't recognize me And if you think your brain is hollow
You just have to scream
And dig a little deeper All art has been contemporary
Dig a little deeper, dig a little deeper
All art has been contemporary
Dig a little deeper, dig a little deeper All art has been contemporary
Dig a little deeper, dig a little deeper
All art has been contemporary
Dig a little deeper, dig a little deeper
