

Go Run

Shrub

Go run, go tell all the people.
Go run, go tell all the people.
Go run, go tell all the people.
That we are here.Go run, go tell all the people.
Go run, go tell all the people.
Go run, go tell all the people.
That we are here.From sun up to sun down is equal.
I got a lighter for my bonfire people.
We night riding to the sounds of the sequel.
We planted seeds with Senorita, now it's Shrub Loving everyday.we making way for them girls that are pretty.
they got swagger like they come from the city.
but it's trippy, in they hearts, they're really hippy.
they whistling down the streets, singing dee dee da dee dee da dee day.we making waves out of riddims that
are lethal.
confessing feelings like we're kneeling in a steeple.
no negativity, letting go our egos.
so in a better way,
we're simply saying that Shrub is here to stay, hey.Go run, go tell all the people.
Go run, go tell all the people.
Go run, go tell all the people.
That we are here.Go run, go tell all the people.
Go run, go tell all the people.
Go run, go tell all the people.
That we are here.we flying high like a helicopter,
fly like a guy, in a suit and tie,
on a blind date with 9.5another day guns blazing,
racing,
slay another dragon,
there's a princess to be saving.i think she's craving,
a little misbehaving,
run through these streets,
cause there ain't no delaying,whether you're too cocked for tank tops or tube socks.
just jump from the rooftops,
yell it to the boondocks,and you can, run through the valley,
you can, scream through the trees,
put a message in a bottle,
send it any way you please.go up the highest mountain,
yell down to those below.
tell em shrub says "hello hello hello hello"Go run, go tell all the people.

Go run, go tell all the people.
Go run, go tell all the people.
That we are here.Go run, go tell all the people.
Go run, go tell all the people.
Go run, go tell all the people.
That we are here.Go run, go tell all the people.
Go run, go tell all the people.
Go run, go tell all the people.
That we are here.Go run, go tell all the people.
Go run, go tell all the people.
Go run, go tell all the people.
That we are here.
