

Art School Wannabe

Sorority Noise

wiping my eyes of sleep drinking yesterday morning's coffee slam my head against the wall put the same black jeans on wear a hat so you can't see my hair maybe I won't die this time maybe I'll be fine this time maybe i'm my own greatest fear maybe i'm too scared to admit that i might not be as dark as i think maybe i'm not the person that i never wanted to be
maybe i'm too scared to admit that
i might not be as dark as i think i might not be as dark as i think so here's the thing, i'm doing fine i know that i'm not worth your time you need a change, i'm still the same took everything but my name maybe i won't die this time
maybe i'm too scared to admit that
i might not be as dark as i think
maybe i'm too scared to admit that
i might not be as dark as i think i might not be as dark as i think maybe i'm my own greatest fear maybe i'm too scared to admit that
i might not be as dark as i think
maybe i'm too scared to admit that
i might not be as dark as i think
i might not be as dark as i think
