

Laid It All on the Line

Armond Duck Chief

Ever since you walked in the door tonight, girl I can't take my eyes off you. i don't beleive in love at first site, aw girl what I would do to you.

I need to know if I stand a chance if I can make this anything more. So I cowboyed up and asked u for a dance.
And now I'm walking you too the floor.

I took a chance and it turned out right, now I'm dancing with you under the neon light. I'm the luckiest guy in the bar tonight. All because I laid it all on the line.

Settle for less well I'd be a fool. I'm so glad girl I asked you to dance. Cause every guys got his eyes on you. Oh baby I'm a man.

And I took a chance and it turned out right. Now I'm dancing with you under the neon light. I'm the luckiest guy in the bar tonight. All because i laid it all on the line.

Don't worry girl I won't call you mine. Let's just hope it stands to test the time. And I took a chance and it turned out right and now I'm dancing with u under the neon light. I'm the luckiest guy in the bar tonight. All because I laid it all on the line. ... All because I laid it all on the line
