All Wrapped Up

New Jersey Kings

Im above everything else saved the ones that shouldnt be hold on to them all so youll find yourself away from me our lost faith strung out on a line my most empathetic dreams of you the sorry excuses on which we dine when all my fears tell me its true borrowed dreams of some imagined future all wrapped up inside this borrowed hope dont manipulate the most beautiful thing youll ever know to the extent of saving your ragged torn out sickly show holding my head above the fold cant decide which side I want I buried everything so deep in the cold now I stop inside of the lies I flaunt borrowed dreams of some imagined future
pull it all away from me show me all the things I can never be allowed to see its all so far away

if you must have faith in someone trust that Ill push you away
if you must have faith in someone
trust that Ill push you away what am I if the flies all stick to me
what am I if the maggots live in me
what am I if Im closet to the stink
what am I if
youre all thats real to me WHAT!AM!I!
teach me just show me

break everything flush it away
teach me just show me
the starts already over break everything and FLUSH IT AWAY!
