

Ten Headed Beast (Christian Löffler Remix)

Hundreds

My truth is a ten headed beast
I'm possessed
It never stops telling me what I could be
I can hear what you say, what you are like
I imitate your life, only in my mind
Here I go like a buoy out of sight
I can feel everything and
Your truth, it is leading my steps for now
Oh, ah, oh
You told me to hold this pose
And my breath fills
A new ego everyday like a masquerade
My core is untouchable
But I play the game
Now I will count to ten
And change my name
Here I go like a buoy out of sight
I can feel everything end
Your truth, it is leading my steps for now
Here I go like a boy out of sight
I can feel everything and
Your truth, your truth, it is leading my steps for now
Oh, ah, oh
