Walk Behind Your House

Tess Parks

Well I melted and fell flat after
I was built so tall
When I was just so youngWanted to stay home a lil' longer
In the room next to my sisters
My best friend is my neighbor
Ask him favors for favors
Jesus is our saviorTook it all for the team
Could have new friends for the highway
Battered up old faces for kicks
To drive us on the freeway
To drive us all to the States
Buyin' Coors at gas stations
And loiter around parking lots
WellWent down pickin' on these guys
While watchin' all the poets fall
As our bodies decay
By the side of the road
Put an ordinary lovin' to spareDon't let yourself go back to this pain
Take a walk behind your house
Watch your sister cry
I was a bad person
I did stuff, yeah
I was free
Now I'm all I wanna be
