The Innocent

Akiko Kiyama

The start of Armageddon
And it's just another day
We all saw the news nothing to say
So many friends are missing
Family members gone
So we all preyed and God help them be strong
And now we stand together
Remembering that day
The lives we live will never be the same
And we don't know why
The innocent die
Will this world ever find a way to change?
And we don't know why
But we know it's not right
We don't know why so many had to die
We don't know why so many had to die
Hate has turned to others
For their religion or their skin
But hate can't solve the problem it began
Everyone is angry
People are afraid
And no one knows what decisions will be made
And we don't know why
The innocent die
Will this world ever find a way to change?
And we don't know why
But we know it's not right
We don't know why so many had to die
We don't know why so many had to die
And we don't know why
The innocent die
Will this world ever find a way to change?
And we don't know why
But we know it's not right
Will any of us ever be the same?
Will any of this ever be the same
And we don't know why
The innocent die
Will any of us ever be the same?

Will any of us ever be the same?
