Under The Northern Lights

Michael Monroe

Drivin' up north, under the northern lights
Went straight through the crossroads
Didn't look left or rightUnder the northern lights
Under the northern lights
Under the northern lightsMaybe there's never gonna be much for me here on earth
Maybe i'm always gonna give it much more than it's worthUnder the northern lights
Under the northern lights, yeah
Under the northern lights
My future looks so much brighter than it did a while ago
And the grey Finnish sky is frozen
Like her ice cold eyes that say noUnder the northern lights
Under the northern lights, yeah
Under the northern lightsMaybe there's always been enough for me on this earth
Maybe I just didn't see it or believe what it's worth
Under the northern lights
Under the northern lights, yeah
Under the northern lightsUnder the northern lights
Under the northern lights, yeah
Under the northern lights
