Giver

Roanoke

is it just me or do you feel a little strange is it just me or do you feel a change now is it me how about you?isn't it strange at times a little fast isn't it strange that nothing ever lasts well now is it me how about you?well now is it me how about you?don't be a fool well don't be afraid nothing's really ever supposed to lastnow don't be a fool
well don't be afraid
everybody needs to breathe the airisn't it funny the very angel through where talk is like walking on broken glass no need to feather im in the same as you one of these days im gonna meet my matchmaker toowell don't be a fool
well don't be afraid
nothing's really ever supposed to lastoh, don't be afraid everybody needs to breathe the airoh, i feel i feel so alive at the edge of the worldwell now is it me how about you?well now is it me how about you.
