Wish Them Well

Rush

All that you can do is wish them well.
All that you can do is wish them well.
All that you can do is wish them well.
All that you can do is wish them well.
Spirits turned bitter by the poison of envy?
Always angry and dissatisfied?
Even the lost ones, the frightened and mean ones
Believe in the ones with the Devil inside!
Thank your stars you?re not that way.
Turn your back and walk away!
Don?t even pause and ask them why;
Turn around and say goodbye!
Wish them well!
All that you can do is wish them well.
All that you can do is wish them well.
People who judge without a measure of mercy
Are the victims who will never learn;
Even the lost ones we finally give up on,
Even the ones who will make you burn!
Thank your stars you?re not that way.
Turn your back and walk away!
Don?t even pause and ask them why;
Turn around and say goodbye!
Don?t even pause and ask them why;
Turn around and say goodbye!

Ones who?ve done you wrong,
Oh, the ones who pretended to be so strong,
Grudges you?ve held for so long:
It?s not worth singing that same sad song!
Ones who?ve done you wrong,
Oh, the ones who pretended to be so strong,
Grudges you?ve held for so long:
It?s not worth singing that same sad song!
Thank your stars you?re not that way.
Turn your back and walk away!
Don?t even pause and ask them why;
Turn around and say goodbye!
Thank your stars you?re not that way.

Turn your back and walk away!
Don?t even pause and ask them why;
Turn around and say goodbye!
All that you can do is wish them well.
All that you can do is wish them well.
All that you can do is wish them well.
Even though you?re going through hell,
Just keep on going like the demons will!
Just wish them well! Wish them well!
Just wish them well! Wish them well!
Even though you?re going through hell,
Wish them well! Wish them well!
